

School and Class Charter

The right to an education
Children:	How adults can help to respect these rights:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be on time Take part in class activities Use time wisely - finish tasks Avoid 'Monster' distractions 	Parents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> supporting their children and having a positive attitude towards school ensuring children arrive on time for school and ready to work attending parent consultations Staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> maintaining a positive learning environment providing a challenging and interesting curriculum
The right to feel safe
Children:	Parents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Be kind and sensible to other people Follow instructions Walk and talk quietly in school Tell an adult if you're worried Take responsibility for your actions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> helping their children behave properly and supporting the school in addressing problems encouraging children to sort out difficulties without hitting, fighting or swearing, at home or in school Staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> teaching school rules and providing a good example of appropriate behaviour implementing rewards and consequences system fairly and consistently
The right to speak and be listened to
Children:	Parents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Give your opinions politely Respect other's opinions Listen to adults and children Use indoor and outdoor voices 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> encouraging children to talk about school and listening to what they have to say each day Staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> allowing all children to voice their opinions modelling speaking and listening skills
The right to be treated with respect
Children:	Parents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Behave with respect to everyone Be polite and use manners Work together 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> encouraging their children's respectful attitude being cooperative and dealing directly with staff about any concerns Staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> encouraging respect for all by modelling and providing appropriate guidance treating all children and families fairly using respectful language about, and towards, children and families
The right to a clean and safe environment
Children:	Parents:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Look after school equipment Put things away and tidy up Respect each other's property Take care of the school and its grounds 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> helping develop a positive attitude towards other's property Staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> creating a safe and pleasant environment promoting responsible behaviour towards property, equipment and facilities